California State Parks, in cooperation with Sonoma-Petaluma State Historic Parks Association, proudly announces, Children’s Day at the Mission on May 5th, 2012 from 12 noon to 4 pm

Bring your family and come experience a day of Sonoma Mission life, circa 1823. Try your hand at Basket weaving, wool carding and Spinning, steer roping and branding, and candle making. Enjoy music, corn bread baked in the horno (beehive oven), and lemonade. Park volunteers and staff will be on site wearing period dress to help create your custom craft.

Mission San Francisco Solano is located at 114 East Spain Street in Sonoma, California 95476. The regular park admission fees of $3.00 per Adult and $2.00 per Child 6 years to 17 years also entitles entry into the Mission, General Vallejo’s Barracks, and General Vallejo’s home, in Sonoma. Park hours are from 10 am to 5 pm.

California State Parks does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities. Prior to arrival, visitors with disabilities who need assistance should contact the park at the phone number listed below. To receive this information in alternate format, contact the park office at the phone number or address listed below.
